Keynote Speakers

MONDAY, 16 JANUARY 2023

Arnaud Girod

Head of Economics and Cross-Asset Strategy, Kepler Cheuvreux

Arnaud – a Franco-Italian national – is Head of Economics and Cross-Asset Strategy. Prior to that, he was Co-Head of Institutional Research at Kepler Cheuvreux for eight years, working alongside Jose Hernandez and Mathieu Labille. During that time, he helped expand the company's stock coverage, which rose from around 400 to 1,000 stocks, and passionately promoted the values of independence and collaboration. He developed Das Research, the company's quality standard, and in-depth research templates, as well as the video platform KC Discovery, and also led Kepler Cheuvreux's ESG integration project. Since 2013, Arnaud has also authored a hybrid top-down/bottom-up quarterly report that builds European high-conviction portfolios. He joined Kepler Cheuvreux in 2008 as an equity sales person selling European equities to UK investors. He started his career in 2001 with BNP Paribas in London after graduating from Paris Dauphine University with a master's degree (5 years) in Financial Markets.

TUESDAY, 17 JANUARY 2023

Thorsten Benner

Geopolitician, Director of the Global Public Policy Institute (GPPi)

Thorsten Benner is co-founder and director of the Global Public Policy Institute (GPPi) in Berlin. His areas of interest include the interplay of the US, Europe and non-Western powers in the making of global (dis)order, German and European policy vis-à-vis China and Asia-Pacific, peace and security as well as data and technology politics. Prior to co-founding GPPi in 2003, he worked with the German Council on Foreign Relations in Berlin, the UN Development Programme in New York, and the Global Public Policy Project in Washington, DC. Thorsten is an adjunct faculty member at the Hertie School of Governance in Berlin, where he has been involved since its founding in 2003.

He studied political science, history, and sociology at the University of Siegen (Germany), the University of York (UK), and the University of California at Berkeley. He received a master's degree in public administration from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government.

His publications include: "The New World of UN Peace Operations: Learning to Build Peace" (Oxford University Press, 2011) and "Critical Choices". The United Nations, Networks, and the Future of Global Governance (Ottawa, 2000). He contributes to several newspapers: DIE ZEIT, International New York Times, Financial Times, Foreign Affairs, Handelsblatt, Süddeutsche Zeitung, and Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung.

Vítor Constâncio

Former Governor of the Bank of Portugal & former Vice President of the ECB

Former Vice President of the European Central Bank (2010 – 2018) and former Governor of Banco de Portugal (2000 – 2010), the central bank of Portugal. Current President of the School Council of The Lisbon School of Economics and Management, University of Lisbon and Professor at Navarra University, Masters on Banking and Regulation, Madrid.

WEDNESDAY, 18 JANUARY 2023

Dr. John Llewellyn

Economist, former Global Chief Economist at Lehman Brothers

Dr John Llewellyn is an internationally renowned economist, with decades of experience having worked in academia, international and national policymaking, and investment banking. Before advising HM Treasury during the 2008 Global Financial Crisis and its aftermath, and co-founding the Llewellyn Consulting in 2009, John was Global Chief Economist and then Senior Economic Policy Advisor at Lehman Brothers.

This followed almost twenty years at the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) in Paris, where he was successively Head of International Forecasting and Policy Analysis and Editor of the OECD Economic Outlook; Deputy Director for Social Affairs, Manpower and Education, and finally Chef de Cabinet to the Secretary-General.

Prior to that he spent nearly ten years at the Faculty of Economics at the University of Cambridge, and was also a Fellow of St. John's College. John holds an undergraduate degree from the Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand, and a doctorate from the University of Oxford. He has published widely.
